DECLINES TO MAKE ANY NEW RECOMMENDATIONS ON BONUS LEGISLATION

SPEAKER GILLETTE REFUSES TO RECOGNIZE FORDNEY TO OF- FER GAG RULE

(By United Press.)
Washington, March 20—President Harding refused to make any new recommendations that might lead republican house leaders out of the soldier bonus tangle.

In a conference with house leaders lasting nearly two hours, the president said in view of his previous statements he had no further suggestions to offer, and that full responsibility for any future action must rest with congress.

After the conference Republican Leader Mondell indicated the president would not object very strenuously to the new bill. Whether the bill will be taken up in the house today under the gag rule probably will be determined in the conference of Speaker Gillette with Harding, which was held immediately after the meeting of the other house leaders.

Following the White House conference, Speaker Gillette blocked temporarily, at least, the passage of the soldier bonus bill through the house.

He announced just before the house met that he would refuse to recognize Chairman Fordney of the house ways and means committee for a motion to pass the bill under the gag rule.

184 ON SHIP LOCKED IN CABINS AS CREW FIGHTS 16 HOUR FIRE

PISTOLS HALT STAMPEDE OF EX- GINE FORCE TO BOATS AFTER HAND TO HAND BATTLE

New York, March 20—Holding a error maddened fireroom crew at their posts with drawn pistols, officers and crew of the United States liner Potomac, which arrived here Saturday fought for 16 hours against a fire at sea, which threatened the vessel's destruction. One hundred and 84 passengers, including women and children, were locked in their staterooms while a fierce blaze raged in the hatchways amid supplies, from midnight until 4 a. m. in the afternoon of March 2.

Ship Helpless for Time.
At one time during the height of the blaze, the Potomac rolled helplessly in the trough of the sea, its engines silent. For four hours it drifted and wallowed without steerage way.

The screams of hysterical women in their narrow cabins and the snarls of Spanish and Filipino firemen, mingled with the roar of flames as the ship's crew, with splendid discipline, struggled in a desperate fight against the growing fire.

For a time it seemed that the fight was a losing one, and Captain MacLeod made preparations to beach his vessel.

The Potomac was less than a day out from Bremen when the fire broke out. At midnight on March 1, Chief Engineer Edward M. Garland discovered a hot fire under No. 4 hatch, which adjoins the fireroom. He notified Captain MacLeod, and the crew stood to the hoses. As the first stream opened up on the flames, which raged among mattresses stored in cargo space at the bottom of the hatch, terror-stricken firemen and coal passers made a rush for the deck.

The 25-year-old scion of the Detroit automobile family, only worked one half day in the work house as it was found he was suffering from a high fever.

The trial at Kalamazoo was brought as a result of alleged driving of a car while intoxicated during which a co-ed from a normal school jumped from the car fracturing her skull.

Miss Emeline Kwackerneck, Grand Rapids normal school student, who was seriously injured when she jumped from Dodge's automobile, March 11, after being offered, she alleged, a drink of whisky, will be sufficiently recovered to appear against Dodge.

Young Dodge was sentenced here to serve five days in prison, pay a fine of $100, and his driver's license was revoked for the year after he pleaded guilty to speeding in recorders' court last Thursday. He earned the admiration of the other prisoners Saturday by the vigor with which he shoveled coal, his first prison task. He worked so hard he became ill and had to be transferred to clerical work. Throughout his ordeal, Dodge was cheerful, ate heartily of prison fare and did not complain because he was not permitted any special privileges.

When he leaves the prison he will be master of a fortune of $1,600,000, the circuit court Saturday having admitted to probate the amended will of his father, the late John F. Dodge, permitting the son to share in the estate. Under the original will, young Dodge was cut with a monthly allowance of $150.

Passengers Locked in Cabins.
Orders came from the captain that no passenger should leave his cabin.

After the fire had gained considerable headway, and the crew was nearly exhausted from four hours continuous fighting of the mounting flames, the Potomac's engines were stopped.

Seamen were lowered over the side in bos'n's chairs, carrying ladders, hammers, with which they smashed in ports leading to the roaring shaft of flames. The deck was like a stove-lid; too hot for the fire fighters, and lines of hose were run over the side to suspended seamen, who shot the streams of water in through the portholes.

War Maneuver Quenches Fire.
Live steam was fed into the hatch without apparent effect. At dawn the vessel was enveloped in smoke so dense that the engines were started once more to carry it out of its own smoke cloud. A passing vessel stood by some distance away, ready to take the passengers off if the fire got beyond control.

Hour after hour pumps forced water into the hold. The flames were only slightly abated. Food was passed in to passengers who had had nothing to eat since dinner the night before.

Finally Captain MacLeod resorted to a maneuver he practised successfully against enemy submarines during the war. It was apparent that the streams from the vessel's hose were insufficient. There was eight feet of water in the hold, sufficient to quench the fire, if it could be employed.

Captain MacLeod ordered full speed ahead.

When the Potomac reached its maximum speed he put his rudder suddenly hard a port. The ship heeled over. As the vessel shifted, the bilge water rolled heavily from side to side and washed in over the bottom of the hatch, where the fire was located. In 40 minutes the fire was out.

The 25-year-old scion of the Detroit automobile family, only worked one half day in the work house as it was found he was suffering from a high fever.

The trial at Kalamazoo was brought as a result of alleged driving of a car while intoxicated during which a co-ed from a normal school jumped from the car fracturing her skull.

"True republicanism, however, always stands for progress but this must be along those carefully considered and safe lines that lead toward better government and growing happiness and prosperity for all the people."

McCumber said that because of the importance of the tariff bill now pending before the senate finance committee, of which he is chairman, and other vital matters, he would have to leave his candidacy very largely to the people of the state. His platform includes lowering of freight rates, securing of better and more stable prices for farm products, extension of co-operative marketing, decrease of interest on farm loans, a better understanding and commercial relations with all the people of the world, and tariff protection for the farmer.

KELLOGG WILL HAVE MORE THAN 800 VOTES 1ST BALLOT

IN THE COMING STATE CONVEN- TION HIS FRIENDS CLAIM

HALLAM SUPPORTERS DENY THE CLAIM—MRS. OLSEN IS DEMO- CRATIC NOMINEE

(By United Press.)
St. Paul, March 20—Claims that Senator Frank B. Kellogg will have more than 800 votes on the floor of the republican state convention, were made by supporters today.

At the headquarters of Judge Oscar Hallam it was declared Kellogg claims were overdrawn, and that he would not have more than 320 delegates on the floor. Hallam headquarters issued a statement asserting that Kellogg claims included a large number of uninstructed delegates. The statement said many of these would favor Judge Hallam.

The battle was reduced to one of jockeying for position and putting forth inducement.

The convention March 31st will seat 1088 delegates. A majority will require 545 votes. Returns from the state county conventions indicate Kellogg will have about 500 hundred delegates instructed, or understood to have openly expressed themselves as favoring his re-election.

Kellogg headquarters express confidence that he will receive the endorsement on the first ballot. Kellogg headquarters did not concede Hallam more than 200 votes and Mayor Geo. E. Leach, of Minneapolis, more than 100.

Democratic county conventions will be held throughout the state tomorrow.

Few if any delegates elected to the state convention will go instructed, it is believed.

State Senator James A. Carley of Plainview, and Mrs. Peter Olsen, of Cloquet, are much talked of as democratic senatorial possibilities.

Larsen ended his life with cyanide of potassium. The glass vial from which Pauline Clark drank her poison last week was found clutched in her fingers. The student wrote a complete history of the case which lead to his sweetheart's death before he himself committed suicide. He told of how several weeks ago he contracted a "cup of death" for his sweetheart knowing she would sooner or later use it to end her life. He said she had promised to wait until her mother returned from Jamaica. She had told him the tragedy of her life and Larsen wondered how she had so long resisted the temptation of death.

Why "French" High Heels.
It is said that Louis XVI appeared in court wearing high wooden heels on his shoes. He was not a tall man, and adopted this expedient to make himself regally impressive. The term French heel was applied to high heels and finally to a certain type of high heel.

HER GOLDEN NOTES ENTHRALLED AUDIENCE

Miss Vera Poppe, Cellist, is a Genuine Artist Endowed with Wonderful Imagination

AND EMOTIONAL EXPRESSION

Technique Faultless, Tones Clear and Precise in Whatever Register She Played

"This concert was worth the price of the entire course", said an appreciative listener at the close of the Vera Poppe concert Sunday afternoon, and that opinion seemed quite general.

That Miss Poppe is a genuine artist, endowed with imagination and emotional expression was shown in the playing of her own compositions "The Song of Pan" and "Poems." But she does not place too much dependence upon these gifts of the Gods, and thereby undervalue the importance of the technique of her art. To the laity, her technique seemed faultless. In whatever register she played, there was the same precision and purity of tone, and her high notes were wonderfully clear and sweet.

Miss Poppe is part English, and part Russian, which probably accounts for the sympathetic interpretation of her Tchaikowsky number "Variations on a Rococo Theme." She said that she was also fortunate enough to be "coached" by this eminent musician.

Before playing "The Deserted Farm" by McDowell, she paid this American composer a high compliment and said that he was more appreciated abroad than at home. She also told how the composer's wife, in carrying out his dearest wish, had made the deserted farms around Peterboro bring forth a far more valuable crop than in the days of their greatest agricultural productivity. Partly through a bequest of her husband's and partly through her own efforts, she has established in the hills of Peterboro an Artist's colony, where struggling young artists may find rest and repose in studio homes with an environment conducive to the best creative work.

Popper seems to be a favorite composer of Miss Poppe's, as she gave one encore from him, a gavotte, besides her program number and substituted the Hungarian Rhapsody for her last number and all were exceedingly well done. Much charm was added to both the program and the encore numbers by the naive manner in which Miss Poppe took the audience into her confidence and told them just what idea she was trying to express through her music. Another way in which she made a hit with her audience was through her generous response to encores. Besides those already mentioned, she gave "Orientale", by Cesar Cui, "Apres un Reve", by Faure, "Danse des Sylves", by Salter, and "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia", which she characterized as one of the loveliest melodies ever written.

Miss Poppe was very appreciative of the work of her accompanist as was, also, the audience. Fortunately, they had an opportunity to show their appreciation by giving her an enthusiastic recall after her solo number, to which she responded with "Etude Caprice", by Noble Cain.

The work of the two blended into such an harmonious whole that the recital was pronounced one of the best ever heard in Brainerd.

GREAT CELLIST CAPTIVATED ALL

In an Interview With Dispatch Vera Poppe Said She Appreciated Reception Brainerd Accorded Her

HAS TREMENDOUS TECHNIQUE

Her Bowing Produces a Tone of Great Depth, Wonderful Wrist Movement Assists

An interview granted the Dispatch proved that Miss Vera Poppe is just as charming in leisure moments as she is when playing her cello in public. The brilliant cellist gave a short history of herself. She was born in Capetown, South Africa, and is of Russian and Colonial parentage. That, said she, accounted for her emotional temperament.

When very young she gained the university certificate with honors and then won the South African University scholarship for music and entered the Royal Academy of Music in London. Her studies were pursued in France as well as England. She played considerably in England, having engagements as a soloist with the London Symphony orchestra and other organizations.

She came to California for a short holiday and was there when the war broke out. The life of a soloist is not all pleasure, said she, for coupled with it is hard work. It means daily practice of three hours, plus an hour and a half on the concert stage. Constant travel is wearing on the nerves and is something which must be done in order to fill engagements of a tour.

In this Minnesota tour she had engagements at Faribault, Northfield, Brainerd, Red Wing, Little Falls, Minneapolis and other cities.

She has a very charming personality and that was quickly evidenced to the Brainerd audience in the prodigal way she responded with encores. The full, rich tone she draws from the cello is a source of wonder. Slight of figure, almost fragile, one wonders where this strength of bowing comes from, until she explained that she traces it all to her wrist. Incessant practice has made her wrist the fulcrum which makes her bowing and the tone produced so virile. Her double stopping is also most remarkable. She expressed her deep appreciation of the fine reception accorded her in Brainerd and was pleased to see what widespread interest is taken in music.

"I think every bit as much of praise accorded me in the small cities as I do of the large cities," said she.

She will return to opera engagements in a few weeks. She sings a return engagement at the State Theatre, Minneapolis, next week.

MANNERS MEAN MUCH

John Victor Anderson Writes the Dispatch a Short Communication, Greets His Friends

In a letter to the Dispatch, John Victor Anderson of Deerwood, who is serving a term for arson in the Stillwater penitentiary, writes as follows: "There has been no time in the annals of civilization when good manners counted so much. Politeness has won more victories than powder. Write your name with kindness, love and mercy on the hearts of those with whom you associate, and you will never be forgotten.

"If we do not look up, we shall look down. If we do not go forward, we shall go backward. There must be an upward tendency in life or we shall retrograde towards barbarism.

"I still remember the cheerful words of Rev. O. S. Winther and I shall forever remember this day. God be with you all, and glory to His holy name."

First Presbyterian Church

A musical entertainment and lecture will be given in the above church on Tuesday evening. The musical part of the program will be given by Mrs. Nels Johnson, Miss Cecil Morrison, Miss Alice Johnson and the high school orchestra.

A lecture on Scottish Character Traits as seen "Through Irish Eyes" will be given by Rev. S. M. Kelly.

This lecture was given by Rev. Kelly before the Ancient Landmark Lodge of A. F. and A. M. and their invited guests, in Winnipeg some years ago and received much favorable comment from the prominent dailies of that city.

The Winnipeg Telegram, Jan. 26, 1915, said: "Those who were privileged to be guests of the Ancient Landmark Lodge of A. F. & A. M. heard a characterization of the Scot that was both entertainingly interesting and humorous. Mr. Kelly did full justice to the Scot and we are of the opinion that Gen. MacLaren was right when he said 'The Scotch in Ulster are more Dorian than the Dorian Themselves.'" for that COUGH!

KEMP'S BALSAM

Little stomachs rebel against constant dosing

Anxious mothers are too apt to dose their children continually. This upsets their delicate stomachs—lays the foundation for indigestion and ill health in later life. Fresh air and exercise are the best medicines for the little ones.

In the form of vapors, given off evenly, steadily and thoroughly for hours after application.

Thus, Vicks is really a vapor lamp in salve form.

Ingredients of great antiquity

Some of Vicks ingredients have been tested by use for many generations past.

For instance, Menthol is a derivative of the Oil of Peppermint, which was produced in Egypt 3000 years ago, and is mentioned in the Icelandic medical books of the Thirteenth Century.

Several of the ingredients of Vicks—Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Oil of Turpentine—are given credit in the United States Dispensatory, our highest authority on drugs and their actions, for the very effects that are most desired in all kinds of cold troubles.

How Vicks should be used

For Spasmodic Croup, Children's Colds—Rub Vicks over the throat and chest until the difficult breathing is relieved, then spread on thickly and cover with a hot flannel cloth. One application at bed time usually prevents a night attack of croup.

For Deep Chest Colds, Sore Throat, Tonsillitis, Bronchitis, Coughs—Vicks should be applied over the throat and chest—if necessary, first using hot, wet cloths to open the pores of the skin—then rubbed in well until the skin is red; spread on thickly and covered with one or two thicknesses of hot flannel cloths. If the cough is annoying, a small piece the size of a pea can be swallowed every few hours.

For Head Colds, Asthma, Catarrh, Hay Fever—Vicks should be melted in a spoon and the vapors inhaled, or a little can be applied up the nostrils and sniffed up the head.

Vapors important

Remember that half the effect of Vicks is in the inhalation of its vapors. So when applied over throat and chest leave bed-covers and night clothing loose at the neck so that these vapors can be freely inhaled.

Rub away children's colds Let them breathe in healing vapors all night

A "vapor lamp in salve form," Vicks is the DIRECT treatment for all cold troubles. Absorbed, like a liniment, and at the same time, Inhaled as a vapor, the medication reaches immediately the congested air passages.

Kiddies do take cold so easily!

A change of weather—or just getting the feet wet—frequently starts them sniffing. Some little ones go from one cold to another—never have a chance to build up any strength.

A mistake to keep them indoors

And so, the fear of recurring colds leads many mothers to keep their children too much indoors.

This is a mistake. Children kept too warm are most apt to take cold.

There is nothing like fresh air play to harden little folk, so that they do not take cold so easily.

The mother's problem

It is best, therefore, to let children run outside in all weathers.

Of course, some colds will result.

The problem has been how to treat these colds without constant internal dosing—so disturbing to their delicate stomachs.

Vicks answers this need

Vicks VapoRub, the invention of a North Carolina druggist, offers the solution.

Applied externally, it can be used as freely and as often as desired, without any harmful effect.

And use of Vicks at night does not require shutting the windows. Just leave the bed-covers loose about the child's neck and the rising vapors will be inhaled all night.

Often averts spasmodic croup

One application of Vicks at bedtime often serves to prevent a threatened attack of spasmodic croup.

And when an attack comes on without warning, in the night, use of Vicks as directed frequently brings relief in 15 minutes.

A family standby

For other cold troubles of children, such as sore throat, chest colds, head colds and tonsillitis, Vicks gives equally quick action.

For surface inflammations it is useful every day—cuts, burns, bruises, scalds, boils, itching skin troubles, chapped skin and chilblains.

And just as good for cold troubles of grown-ups—bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, laryngitis, pharyngitis.

Doubly a direct action

Vicks works immediately and directly in affections of the air passages.

Like a liniment, it is absorbed thru and stimulates the skin. This relieves soreness, loosens phlegm and eases difficult breathing.

Like a vapor lamp, the application over the throat and chest sends up healing vapors, which are inhaled with each breath directly into the congested, inflamed air passages.

Invented by a Southern druggist

Some years ago, Lunsford Richardson, a druggist of Greensboro, N. C., was seeking a better way to treat cold troubles.

He found how to combine the best of nature's remedies for colds into salve form.

Camphor, Menthol, Eucalyptus, Thyme, Turpentine and other volatile ingredients are so mixed in this salve that their vapors are imprisoned until application brings contact with the natural heat of the body.

Then these ingredients are released

Motor Lubricants for 30 Million People

REFINING crude petroleum to produce a multiplicity of useful products is a highly specialized branch of industry.

The refining of gasoline and the manufacture of lubricating oils each require special treatment. Motor lubricants are made from specially selected crude and the portions of such crude best adapted for high quality motor oils are extracted during the first operations of refining.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is proud of its achievements; proud of its enviable record as a manufacturer of gasoline, and equally proud of its record as a manufacturer of lubricants for all types and classes of machinery.

During 1921 nearly 25 million gallons of Polarine, the perfect motor oil, were manufactured and sold.

This enormous gallonage went to the consumer with the unqualified guarantee of the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) that no better lubricant for an internal combustion engine could be made.

Lubricating oil is the most vital factor in conserving your car investment. In making definite recommendations for lubricating your car this Company realizes the importance to you, and to itself, of knowing exactly what each machine requires.

The responsibility of the Standard Oil Company, (Indiana) is emphasized when you consider that in the territory served there are more than 3 million automotive vehicles under registration. These machines represent a total investment of more than 2 billion dollars.

Every drop of motor oil manufactured by the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is made to meet definite requirements worked out in the Company's laboratories by skilled chemists, refiners and lubricating engineers who have given careful study to the technical problems and their practical application under working conditions, which the oil must meet.

It is because they have given such painstaking attention to every detail of manufacture and application that the Company has been able to produce Polarine, the perfect motor oil.

It is this painstaking attention to every detail, in every branch of its business, that has made this Company a leader in the industry.

It is by such sustained, conscientious, enthusiastic effort, to keep faith with its patrons, that this Company has won the confidence, esteem and respect of the public it serves.

SPIRIT OF ROTARY STILL WITH US.

The Rotarians have gone, although here and there some members linger among their Duluth friends. The Rotary convention is over, but the spirit of Rotary is still with us, bigger and more radiant in all directions than it ever was. Duluth has found once more that to expend in some ways means to have in greater measure. The jolly-fellowship shown to guests will react to help the home club and through it, the city.

For a long time to come Rotarians of the Fifteenth District who were guests at the convention in Duluth in March 1922 will tell of the way in which this community welcomed them. If ever Duluth did itself proud in handling a convention, Thursday and Friday of this week was the time. It has handled conventions before and won great praise, but somehow, the Rotary gathering just adjourned seemed to develop unusual snap and facility on the part of the hosts.

All the people of Duluth had a hand directly or indirectly in making the visit of the Rotarians more than worth while. It must be said of the guests that their genial spirits plus their attire, each type spelling the carnival spirit, had much to do with stirring Duluth to its best efforts.

The Rotary Club of Superior exhibited a most cordial attitude—the true brotherly spirit. Its members crossed the bay and took a part in the proceedings and in the fun that will not soon be forgotten and their convention apparel was one of the hits of the gathering. One of these days our Wisconsin neighbor will be hosts to the Rotary organizations of this region, and then will come the opportunity for Duluth Rotarians to do their prettiest.

It is not possible to estimate the benefits that will come to Duluth through the convention just adjourned. The visitors talked kindly about us on their way here and they were talking even more kindly and more enthusiastically about us when they said good-by. Such a gathering as was that of the Rotarian convention has an influence in many directions. Duluth is eager to have another just as soon as it can be arranged without crowding the claims of its neighboring cities.—Duluth News Tribune.

HARDING'S PRACTICAL WORK.

It has probably been generally noticed that the Democrats in the Senate, and the Democratic press throughout the country, endeavor to make it appear that the results of the Armament Conference were really an adoption of the ideas of President Wilson, and President Wilson and the Democratic party should accordingly be given credit for all the accomplishments.

The idea of the promotion of peace by an international agreement, as a matter of fact, originated with neither Harding nor Wilson. The idea is, indeed, older than the Christian religion. It has been advanced in both ancient and modern times and advocated by innumerable people for centuries.

The intelligent reader and observer realizes that there is little new under the sun. When men have a right to claim credit for accomplishment it is chiefly because they have made practical application of old ideas, and that is exactly what President Harding and his co-workers have done. They have devised a plan upon which all nations could agree for the limitation of armaments. They also secured an agreement regarding a number of disputed questions affecting land bordering upon the Pacific and islands in the Pacific, which threatened to be an ultimate cause of war. By this means the occasion for war was minimized and the temptation to war reduced.

The idea of an agreement for the limitation of armaments on the Great Lakes was suggested by Washington, but nothing was done until the administration of James Munroe, when an agreement was entered into, in 1817, by which both Great Britain and the United States agreed to maintain armaments there sufficient only for enforcement of revenue laws. That agreement has been strictly observed, military burdens have been lightened, and a closer feeling of friendship between the United States and Canada has been developed.

President Harding and his associates, however, deserve much credit for putting an old idea into practical effect.

AMERICAN DIRIGIBLES.

It has been virtually decided by the War and Navy Departments that further experimentation with lighter than air machines shall be solely with those of American manufacture. A dirigible of American design and construction is now in process of assembly at Lakehurst, New Jersey. It is similar in size to the ill-fated ZR-2 that collapsed in England, but contains none of the structural defects that were responsible for that catastrophe. Furthermore, no more dirigibles will be sent aloft unless filled with helium.

In this connection we notice that Secretary of War Weeks takes occasion to refute the charge that has appeared in the press to the effect that Congress refused an appropriation for the operation of the helium plant, and therefore should be held responsible for the wreck of the Roma. As a matter of fact, Congress appropriated $250,000 for the production of helium, all that was asked by the air service, and there was enough on hand to have filled the Roma. Just why that was not done is now being investigated.

MOTOR TAXATION LAW.

The rush of applications for 1922 motor vehicle licenses is now over, and Secretary of State Holm is preparing a report on the defects of the present automobile taxation law, which he will present to the 1923 legislature. He certainly has some job ahead. A new bill altogether, upon an entirely different system, a gasoline tax for instance, would undoubtedly prove much more satisfactory to all concerned than the present unfair law, with its many glaring defects. The gasoline tax would be eminently fair to all, and simple and easy of enforcement and at less expense. In view of the fact that 70,000 of the 336,000 cars in the state have not been registered yet for this year, it would seem that the present system is a failure.

A chiropractor would rather get a fever case than anything else. Why? Because it is a common thing for fevers to break up after one or two adjustments have been given.

All are Endorsed by Republican County Convention in Session in Brainerd Saturday

HARMONIOUS MEETING HELD

One Woman Named Delegate to the State Convention, and Two are Named as Alternates

It was a most harmonious republican county convention held in the court house on Saturday afternoon. The farmers room in the court house was crowded with delegates. County Chairman C. A. Allbright called the meeting to order and read the call. Mrs. J. A. Thabes officiated as secretary.

Hon. A. J. Halsted was elected chairman of the convention and Mrs. Thabes secretary. On motion later the temporary organization was made permanent.

The credential committee reported. The resolutions committee named as E. P. Scallion of Crosby, Mrs. E. J. Quinn of Brainerd, George Harris of Pequot, S. F. Alderman and W. H. Gemmell of Brainerd.

D. D. Schrader offered as a resolution that the selection of delegates to the state convention be apportioned as follows: Brainerd given 5, the range 5 and outlying districts 2, which was adopted.

D. B. McAlpine of Iron-ton, proposed as the five range delegates E. P. Scallion of Crosby, D. B. McAlpine of Iron-ton, A. H. Proctor of Iron-ton, Wilbur Van Evera and C. L. Benedict of Crosby, which was carried.

Nominations were opened for the Brainerd delegates.

D. D. Schrader nominated Milton Mahlum.

Milton Mahlum nominated W. H. Gemmell.

George LaBar nominated T. B. Brusegaard.

D. D. Schrader nominated Mrs. E. J. Quinn.

T. B. Brusegaard nominated D. D. Schrader.

Milton Mahlum nominated Asher Taylor.

As there are five delegates to be elected, an election was ordered, the tellers, F. H. Gruenhagen and B. L. Lagerquist, being named.

For outlying precincts George Harris of Pequot nominated R. R. Wise of Brainerd and D. D. Schrader nominated L. P. Hall of Bay Lake, which on motion, were unanimously elected.

On motion of D. B. McAlpine and seconded by Mrs. E. J. Quinn a ten minute recess was taken.

Mr. McAlpine then moved the resolution committee make its report, which carried.

Resolutions

It was read by Chairman E. P. Scallion of Crosby as follows, and unanimously adopted:

"That we reaffirm our allegiance to the republican party and commend the administration of Warren G. Harding as president.

"We believe that Senator Kellogg, Governor Preus and Congressman Harold Knutson have rendered valuable and conscientious services to our state and nation and are entitled to re-nomination and election.

"We are in favor of an adjusted compensation payment to veterans of the late war and urge congress to pass legislation that will provide funds for the payment thereof so that the country will continue in a sound financial condition.

"We approve and endorse the so-called 4 power treaty to insure peace in the Pacific and the disarmament and other treaties recently negotiated in Washington at the instance of Warren G. Harding, our president, and urge the senate of the United States to promptly ratify same."

County Committee

D. D. Schrader asked that a committee of seven nominate the members of the county committee, which carried. The chair appointed George D. LaBar, Louis Hohman, D. D. Schrader, H. J. Ernster, A. H. Proctor, George McCulloch and Wilbur Van Evera.

The five delegates elected to represent Brainerd at the state convention were announced as Milton Mahlum, Dr. J. A. Thabes, W. H. Gemmell, W. H. Gemmell, Mrs. E. J. Quinn and D. D. Schrader.

District Delegates

For district delegates D. B. McAlpine moved the distribution be 5 for Brainerd, 5 for the range, 1 for outlying districts. Dr. J. A. Thabes suggested and it was accepted by Mr. McAlpine that distribution be Brainerd 4, range 4, and country 3, which was carried.

Mr. Gemmell suggested the country district be named first, which carried.

There were nominated L. P. Hall of Bay Lake, J. G. Thurlow of Pequot and George McCulloch of Oak Lawn. On motion of Mr. McAlpine, nominations were closed and they were unanimously elected.

The Brainerd delegates were named and elected, C. A. Allbright, John Hol-vick, D. D. Schrader, Mrs. E. J. Quinn. For the range were nominated and elected E. P. Scallion, D. B. McAlpine, A. H. Proctor and Wilbur Van Evera. George D. LaBar reported on the nominations for the county committee as follows, which was accepted by the convention:

D. D. Schrader, chairman of county committee, and R. S. Wilcox, of Brainerd; J. C. Nelson of Pequot; Mrs. E. J. Quinn, Mrs. Maud Mannis, K. S. Bredenberg of Brainerd; D. B. McAlpine, Miss Anna Himrod of Iron-ton; Theodore G. Johnson of Crosby; L. P. Hall of Bay Lake; R. G. Harte of Trommald, and further recommended the chairman be authorized to appoint five additional members.

Alternates

Alternates to the state convention were then named as follows:

Range: R. G. Harte, H. J. Ernster, L. Wahl, Dr. E. J. Pengelly and R. E. Bennett.

Brainerd: C. A. Allbright, Mrs. Rose Parker, Mrs. J. A. Thabes, T. B. Brusegaard, Asher Taylor.

Country: Fred Winquist of Deer-wood township and P. B. Anderson of Crow Wing.

The convention then adjourned.

HIGH SCHOOL 43, AMERICAN LEGION 17

(W. G.)

The American Legion succumbed to a complete basketball defeat at the hands of the local high school five. Notwithstanding the enormous score of 43 to 17, the legion fought hard, scoring the first four points of the game. The high school although having to sweat for every point, at no time during the game left any doubt as to what the outcome would be. Welch was the eminent star for the legion, making a good share of the points on their side of the tally. From a financial standpoint the game could not be called a success, and the high school will have to find other means to outfit their baseball nine.

UNUSUAL TICKET SALE IS SET

Hoped to Realize Enough to Have a Float in 50th Anniversary Parade and Start Building Fund

The meeting of the Business & Professional Women's club held Tuesday evening in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, was an enthusiastic one, though the attendance was not so large as was anticipated. Much business of importance was transacted, however, and the next few months will be busy ones for the members of this new and growing club. Three new members were taken into the club, Miss Marie Canan, photographer, Miss Mildred Kapp, stenographer at Stadlbauer's garage, and Miss Dagna Stendahl, stenographer at the Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Evelyn S. arm, chairman of the summer cottage committee, reported the progress made, and it is expected that additional plans will be offered at the next meeting. A movie project, which if successfully carried through will net the club $1,000, was the next presented to the club by the president, Miss Harriet Engsborg, who presided. After some discussion the offer was accepted, the tickets to be sold during April, and the shows, four in number, will be presented two evenings a week during May, with attractive dramatic and musical numbers by members of the club.

The selling campaign will be of much interest, the ticket sale being in the hands of a committee that will consist of practically every member of the club. There will be a general, who will command a number of colonels, under whom will be captains, who will direct the activities of the selling teams. There will be a dinner given to the team selling the most tickets, at which the 'officers' will also be guests, and to the individual girl selling the most tickets a prize will be given. It is expected that a great deal of good-natured rivalry will be in evidence, assuring the sale of the necessary number of tickets.

It is hoped that a sufficient sum will be realized from this unusual selling campaign to make it possible for the club to have their own float in the fiftieth anniversary "pageant on wheels" and allow a liberal donation toward the expenses of the celebration, the balance perhaps to be used as the nucleus of a building fund.

A splendid report of the progress of the fiftieth anniversary celebration was given by Dr. Grace Williams, the delegate sent by the club to the meeting held March 2nd. At that meeting Dr. "Grace" was made a member of the executive committee, under whose direction the movement is rapidly gaining impetus. The different organizations of the city are falling in line with splendid spirit, pledging their support in every way, and the Business & Professional Women are eager to do their share in making this home coming week a memorable one.

Some discussion preceded the motion to provide entertainment during home coming week by giving at least one show of two performances a night, and possibly two, if it becomes necessary to have additional shows to

Following the report of Dr. Williams, Henry I. Cohen addressed the club in the interest of the Jewish Relief Appeal. His remarks were presented in a very earnest manner, and those members who have not already responded to this call of destitute humanity will most surely send in their contributions at once. VETERAN OF CIVIL WAR REVEALS HEALTH SECRET

Tells of Wonderful Remedy That Has Kept Him Fit for Thirty Years

The Civil War ended more than fifty years ago, and the veterans of that great conflict are rapidly passing. The soldiers of that period endured many hardships, were exposed to the elements and in many cases, were ill fed. These conditions led to chronic ailments of all kinds, such as rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, constipation, heart trouble and diseases of the kidneys and liver.

One veteran, Mr. Abram

Arnold, R. F. D. No. 2, Campbell, N. Y., now in his 77th year and hale and hearty, tells how he has kept himself in good health. He writes:

"I have made use of Dr. A. W. Chase's medicines for 25 or 30 years and during that time they have never failed to do all that is recommended of them. I am a veteran of the Civil War—almost 77 years old, and was through fifteen hard fought battles, but am still living with the help of Dr. A. W. Chase's Tonic Pills. I have a bad heart, and find these pills of wonderful benefit for this trouble. Anyone wishing further particulars may write me, and I will gladly reply, as I want people to know of this wonderful remedy."

You can buy Dr. A. W. Chase's remedies at all drug stores. To be sure of getting the genuine, see that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on each box. This is a trade mark for your protection against imitations. — Advertisement 3

AMUSEMENTS

Lytell to Appear in "The Man Who"
 "The Man Who," by Lloyd Osbourne, which will be remembered by Saturday Evening Post readers as one of the most delightful stories of many seasons, has been made into a motion picture by Arthur Zellner and will be presented at the Lyceum theatre for two days beginning tonight.

It is a Maxwell Karger production for Metro, starring Bert Lytell in the role of Beddy Mills, the New York bank clerk who tried to become the Man Who Broke the Shoe Trust.

SCENE FROM "THE MAN WHO" STARRING BERT LYTELL

Beddy's ambition to become a Man Who is inspired by his desire to win the favor of Helen Jessop, daughter of an old New York family, who has no use for men who were just "nice and ordinary." So Beddy decides to go about faultlessly dressed, except that his feet are always bare as a protest against the high price of shoes. Going barefoot into exclusive social circles produces amusing complications and inspires a national barefoot campaign.

Bert Lytell's supporting company includes Lucy Cotton, as Helen Jessop; Virginia Valli, as Mary Turner, the shoe magnate's daughter who loves Beddy in spite of everything, and other well known film stars.

"Thunderclap"

Manager Hiller of the Lyceum who has arranged with the well-known motion producer, William Fox, for the showing of "Thunderclap," calls attention to the remarkable staff and cast for this stupendous photodrama. Mary Carr, of "Over the Hill" fame heads the cast, with Violet Mersereau, J.

"THUNDERCLAP" WILLIAM FOX PRODUCTION

Barney Sherry, Paul Willis, John Daly Murphy, Walter McEwan, Maude Hill, Hal Clarendon, Joe Burke and Thomas McCann, supporting. The story was adapted by the well known scenarist Paul H. Sloane, with Richard Stanton as the director.

New York newspapers say that two of the most spectacular scenes ever registered on the screen take place in "Thunderclap." One is the hair-raising passage of the hero down a tempestuous rapids on the top of a board, and the other is the race track scene. These two scenes alone would make this picture more than worth while, and judging from the success that this super-photoplay enjoyed on Broadway at the Central Theatre, New York, it may be deduced that there are elements of appeal for every class of picture-goer.

Mary Carr is again given a great mother role. Without the use of her mouth, playing the part of a paralytic, she again scores a great hit.

The story deals with sporting life and the gaming tables, and "Thunderclap" takes its title from the race horse upon whose victory the fortunes of the hero and the heroine rest. "Thunderclap" comes to the Lyceum on Wednesday for a limited run of two days only, matinee and night.

At the Park Theatre

Mingling entertainment of the most engrossing nature with a lesson of tremendous moral value, "At the Stage Door," William Christy Cabanne's most recent production for R-C Pictures, is making thousands of new admirers for this brilliant young director wherever it is shown. "At the Stage Door" is the attraction at the New Park tonight and Tuesday.

As usual, Mr. Cabanne has taken a theme that strikes home with a wallop; a theme that gets right into the hearts of all beholders and makes them thrill with the joy of living. Not only did he direct the picture, but he wrote the story as well which amounts to a guarantee that it will be entertaining.

"At the Stage Door," as the title indicates, reveals a strikingly realistic picture of theatre life; of life behind the curtain and the footlights. It gives a glimpse of a world of which the average man or woman knows very little—a world where drama abounds in the lives of those who dwell in it.

The story has to do with the adventures of a country-bred girl who comes to the city after her pretty and younger sister who wins the older girl's fiancé. She obtains a position in the chorus and is subjected to all manner of temptations.

Norma Talmadge at New Park

Norma Talmadge has done many fine things in the line of screen entertainment, but we doubt if anything ever done before will be quite as generally liked as "The Wonderful Thing" her latest production, which will be presented at the New Park on Wednesday and Thursday.

Miss Talmadge has a role which gives her opportunity for exhibiting a decided talent for comedy, an accomplishment which is generally supposed to have gone entirely to her sister Constance, at least as far as the Talmadge family is concerned. In addition, the story does not deprive the audience at the theatre of seeing Miss Talmadge do some of the emotional acting which has made her so popular.

"The Wonderful Thing" is really good entertainment. The wonderful thing about it is the wonderful way in which excellent comedy has been mixed in with drama and pathos.

The entire cast is five, and naturally, Harrison Ford carries away the honors that go to the male characters. Howard Truesdale, however, is admirable as the self-made American Hog King, and others in the cast who give good account of themselves are Robert Agnew, Ethel Fleming, Mabel Bert, Fanny Burke, Walter McEwan and Charles Craig.

Loretta Sheridan, Prima Donna, at Park Theatre All Week

Loretta Sheridan, whose remarkable jump from a student to prima donna on the musical comedy stage was the talk of New York, several years ago, and who lately finished an engagement in "Good Morning Judge", in Boston, has come to Brainerd as an added attraction to the Park theatre program this week.

Miss Sheridan, a soprano, has appeared in such successes of the stage as "Going Up", "The Girl of My Heart", "The Golden Girl", Victor Herbert's opera, and "Her Bridal Night", the Dolly Sisters vehicle, all on Broadway.

Miss Sheridan is a Columbus, Ohio, girl, and studied for the concert stage under Maurice LaFarge, Madame Aida's teacher, and also sang the prima donna role in "Sometime". From Boston, Miss Sheridan added Minneapolis State theatre and St. Paul Capitol theatre to her repertoire list. She will appear this week at all performances.

be "The Idol Dancer," and the members of the club are urged to purchase tickets. These may be procured from Miss Engsborg, Mrs. E. G. Roth, or Miss McColl. In those faithful days of 1917, when our boys were en-training, we all escorted them to the station, cheering and waving flags, and with tear-dimmed eyes we bid them Godspeed. They went, they conquered, and now they are taking up the daily task among us, some of them disabled. The least we can do (though why be content to do the least?) is to give them our whole-hearted support. All they ask at this time is that we allow ourselves to be entertained for a short time at no advance in price. Let's go!

The rural teachers will soon convene in Brainerd, holding their meetings in the court house. As some of them are members of the club, the business and professional women will keep open house on the Friday and Saturday they are here, tea being served by the March entertainment committee during the afternoon. The teachers are most cordially invited to use the club rooms in the Lyceum building in any manner in which they may serve a need. Entertaining magazines are provided, also a telephone, restful chairs and couches are there, with a piano and lots of new music, and rest with entertainment is offered the rural teachers by the club members.

The entertainment committee for April was drawn, Selma Peterson being chairman, to be assisted by the following: Nellie Nyquist, Hildegard Lindholm, Dora Turcotte, Dorothy Smith, Mabel Sheffield, Ethel Fredstrom, Cecil McCaffrey, Mrs. Fred Moigren, Laura Madden, Marie Hilstadt, Mrs. E. J. McMahon, Anne Linneman, Mrs. A. E. Hugdahl, and Mrs. B. E. Dunham. A committee was also asked for to select the pictures to be featured during May, and Marie Adair and Islay McColl, with three others not yet appointed, will serve on this committee.

The club wishes to thank the Chamber of Commerce for the privilege of using the club rooms for this meeting. Owing to the rapid growth of this "youngster" of a club, its own club rooms are now too small for the business meetings, when it is desired that all members attend. If a house suitable for club quarters was available within easy walking distance of the downtown district, the club might consider its purchase. Clubs in other cities have purchased and remodeled or built adequate quarters, and there is no reason why the Brainerd club should not soon have a home of its own. All that is needed is the hearty cooperation of each member and the general public. By the application of one of the club ideals, "constant courage," anything may be accomplished. —I. McC.
